GRAMMAR

Let's imagine it's the weekend and you tell a friend or a colleague the story about our lunch:

On Friday, I had lunch with Rémy at home.

My wife prepared delicious pizza.

We ate outside because the weather was beautiful.

We set the table with the forks, the knives, the spoons, the plates and the glasses.

Rémy and I drank beer.

For starters, we had carrots, tomatoes, salad, radishes and celery.

For main course, we ate pizza. On the pizza, there were tomatoes, cheese, olives and ham. The dough was prepared with buckwheat flour.

During lunch, we all spoke English: Rémy, my wife, my daughter and me.

For dessert, we ate a tart with raspberries and almonds. I liked the dessert and the pizza with goat cheese.
