

Session

Hours
52/75

Date
22/05/2017
10:00-12:00

Lesson Summary

OBJECTIVES
Game – comparative and superlative (until 'good')
NH E U7 p1,2,3 ex1 (finished)

NEW VOCABULARY
A seed	Une graine
Near	Près de
The stage	La scène (d'une salle de spectacle)
A cloister	Un cloître
To wonder	Se demander
To go for a walk	Aller se promener
Trousers	Un pantalon
A shirt	Une chemise
Spicy	Epicé
Knowledge	Connaissance
1903 ('nineteen oh three')
To record	Enregistrer
A microphone ('maïk')	Un micro (phone)
The take off	Le décollage
To take off	Décoller (avion)
The landing	L'atterrissage
To land	Atterrir
UK (United Kingdom)	Royaume-Uni
The housework	Le ménage
To read / read ('rèd') / read ('rèd')	Lire
On holiday	En vacances
The good old days	Le bon vieux temps
Middy / Noon	Midi
4:30 = Half past four = four thirty
12:05 = Five past twelve = twelve oh five
12:45 = quarter to one = twelve forty-five
Here	Ici
There	Là, là-bas
A sweater (US) / A jumper (UK)	Un pull
Sweets	Bonbons

GRAMMAR

Adjective + enough = assez + adjectif

They are old enough to play with it now.

= Elles sont assez vieilles/grandes pour jouer avec ça maintenant.

As ... as = autant ... que

Not as ... as = pas autant ... que

Julia is as good at playing badminton as me.

The weather in England is not as beautiful as the French weather.

My trousers are not as short as my shorts

My phone is as modern as my daughter's (phone).

This bottle of wine is as expensive as a bottle of Beaujolais.

Comparative:

I am older than my wife.

My dog runs faster than me.

My bicycle is slower than my motorbike.

Nina's bedroom is nicer than Julia's (bedroom).

English weather is worse than French weather.

Superlative:

My house is the biggest one in my family.

This shirt is the cheapest in this shop.

Monaco is the best football team in France.

'There are' in the past: 'There were'

When Bill was young, there were only two channels on TV.

Who did you go with? = Avec qui y es-tu allé?

Future Objectives

Sports quiz

Game – Guess if I can...

Next Lesson

Monday, 5th

June

9:30-11:30