

Session

Hours 25.5/36

Date 10/03/2017

Lesson Summary

OBJECTIVES
Getting to know each other

To go to Haute-Loire I live in St Chamond

How many tables are there in the room?

There is one table in the room.

There is only one table in the room (=seulement une)

It reminds me of my first-aid lessons as a teacher.

= Ça me rappelle mes cours de premiers secours en tant que formateur.

I give approximately 7 first-aid lessons per year.

One person (singular) /// 2, 3, ... people (plural) NO "S" The woman is looking at the window.

To look at something = regarder quelque chose

To look at someone = regarder quelqu'un

There are a lot of stars in the sky.

In the picture, there are 2 people dancing and 2 people speaking.

There are people waiting at the airport.

There is a man at the window.

I can see one person in the kitchen.

There is a spider on the ceiling ("ssiling")

There are two horses in the field.

There is a woman sitting at a table. She is sitting on a chair.

There is a pair of shoes in the box.

The man is swimming in the pool.

I can see a clock on the wall.

In the picture, there are two people sitting in a taxi/car

These people are on a ship/bus/train/plane

The restaurant is on the second floor.

Future Objectives

Next Lesson

Health An electrician	6
An electrician	Santé
	Un électricien
A screwdriver	Un tournevis
Here	Ici
An orchard	Un verger
Apricot	Abricot
Plum	Une prune
A cupboard	Un placard
To remind	Rappeler (quelque chose à quelqu'un)
A nurse	Un(e) infirmier(e)
To forget	Oublier
To lose/ To find	Perdre/ Trouver
To hear	Entendre
To listen to	Ecouter
To get on the bus	Monter dansle bus
A field	Un champ
A magnetic field
To have a nap	Faire une sieste
A lid	Un couvercle
A shelf (plural= shelves)	Une étagère
At the doctor's	Chez le docteur
At the butcher's	Chez le boucher
An alarm-clock	Un réveil (objet)
A drawer	Un tiroir
Husband/Wife	Mari/Femme
A bunch of flowers	Un bouquet de fleurs
Stairs	Des escaliers
A column	Une colonne
Autumn	Automne